Conduct Guidelines

In order to ensure a pleasant, successful trip, CYSO members shall abide by the following rules, practices and procedures from the time they leave home until they return home.

1. Members shall keep their adult advisors informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times. No wandering off from the group or unauthorized visitors are allowed.
2. Transportation to and from all events shall be by public carrier only, unless an authorized person or parent is driving or special permission has been given for a member to drive.
3. No alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs in any form shall be possessed by a member at anytime or under any circumstances.
4. All members shall be responsible for their instruments, music, baggage and personal items.
5. All members shall attend all rehearsals, sectionals, and concerts as designated by the conductors. Members shall be prompt and prepared.
6. All members shall respect and abide by the authority and decisions of the conductors, coaches and adult advisors.
7. Any member who violates or ignores any of the above rules risks being sent home at his or her own expense along with any other appropriate disciplinary action.
